

BABY WOODROSE

(DK / Bad Afro Records)
Psychedelic Rock

The Danish band Baby Woodrose has capped its connection to the present long ago!

They can equally master late 60s Garage Rock, delicate Psych-Folk as well as raw and psychedelic early 70s Hard Rock. Old fashioned yet timeless, forceful and brute: Baby Woodrose must be mentioned alongside names like Monster Magnet or The Bevis Frond as one of the important names in today's Neo-Psychedelic scene.

In concert Baby Woodrose is a heavy and hallucinating psychedelic rock monster, who named itself after a Hawaiian climbing plant, which produces the highly psychoactive substance LSA, a chemical relative of LSD.

Singer, guitarist and songwriter Lorenzo Woodrose, the mastermind behind Baby Woodrose, must be considered the undisputed godfather of the Danish Garage Rock scene. From 1996 to 2003 he played drums with the Psych-Stoner pioneers On Trial before starting Baby Woodrose in 2001, first as a heavy power trio and since 2009 as a quartet featuring a second guitar.

Since then the band has plowed its way through the international Psych, Stoner and Garage Rock scene, releasing eight albums, playing more than 400 international concerts including appearances at Roskilde Festival, Roadburn, SXSW, Rockpalast and Duna Jam.

In his off-time Lorenzo records obscure tracks to his four-track recorder, spins rare Psych pearls as DJ or plays acoustic solo shows. Between 2007 and 2010 Lorenzo also recorded three albums with his space rock project Dragontears and in 2011 he toured with Danish cult band Spids Nøgenhat.

April 2012 will see the release of the ninth Baby Woodrose album "Third Eye Surgery" on Bad Afro Records. For a musical trip back in time please enter here but don't say we didn't warn you!
